JAMES P. BRENNAN NAMED TO BANK BOARD

Bethlehem, PA, April 30, 2008 – June Webre, Regional President for Team Capital Bank announced that James P. Brennan, Ph.D., has been appointed to the Lehigh Valley Regional Board. "We are delighted to have Dr. Jim Brennan join the Lehigh Valley Regional Board of Directors," said Webre. "His international reputation in management and leadership will be invaluable to us as we grow, especially with our new Phillipsburg banking office currently in development."

Brennan is an internationally recognized performance consultant serving business executives, corporate teams, and professional and college athletes. He is the former Dean of The Wescoe School of Muhlenberg College. He has held numerous positions in industry, including Director of Organizational Development and Director of Human Resources/Labor Relations at Mallinkrodt Baker Inc. in Phillipsburg, NJ. In addition to conducting seminars in the U.S. on human performance and motivation, Dr. Brennan has facilitated a series of leadership training workshops for the United States Agency for International Development in Asia, South America and the Middle East. He currently directs a leadership and training program for executives at Korporata Energjetike E Kosoves, the public utility for coal mining and electrical power in Kosovo. Brennan is currently the Sports Psychology and Mental Skills consultant for the Villanova University Men's Basketball team.

A Phillipsburg native, Brennan and his wife, Camille, reside in Forks Township. He is a committee member and current Chair of the Phillipsburg School District Community Partnership Committee, and a member of the Middle States Accreditation Advisory Team for both the Phillipsburg and Easton School Districts. Brennan holds a Ph. D. from the University of Wyoming. He is completing his first book, Extraordinary Powers in the Ordinary Person, which links emotional intelligence and human empowerment.
